Jason's Passing

Submitted by Philippa Joly

Jason McDonald,

August 30, 1979 • August 27, 2017

It is with great sadness that we grieve the death of Jason McDonald, Jazzy, Papa and Daddy. He was my wonderful friend, a super duper caring father to Breah and a big hearted, generous, creative, inspiring friend.

Thank you to all of you for the amazing, almost overwhelming support. I really feel held by this community, and will continue to learn to ask for your help over the years. Especially thank you to my family and dear friends, to all those who responded to the call that night, to all who are generously donating such wonderful nourishing food and those who have contributed a financial donation. I feel all of your care.

We had a warm circle of remembrance for Jason's life last week and will have a community memorial in the next month. Keep your eyes out for more info.

As for Jason and the water delivery, please stay tuned, we are working out a plan to keep the water coming in Jason's name!

We miss you Jazzy!

Once again the Blackberry Faire was a big success! A lot to see and do and the weather co-operated. Our Community Hall pie table was a popular sell-out affair – thanks to the pie donors we had at least 30 pies!

Thinking Ahead

Thinking ahead, we would like to up-date our pie donor list with some new names and also compile a short list of 1-hour volunteers for the big day. It is a great way for new-comers to dip a toe into community action!

Please call me, Denise MacKean at 335-1608 or e-mail to bmackean@telus.net if this sounds good to you. It's really fun to dish out yummy pies to hungry Faire goers!

Baroque Dance Workshop

Submitted by Andrew Fyson

Denman Early Music (part of Arts Denman) is organising a workshop of baroque dance to be given by Catherine Lee who has been Artistic Director of Historical Performance Ensemble (HPE) since 1989. This professional group, based in Vancouver has presented over 400 events. For more information on the group visit the facebook site: facebook: Historical Performance Ensemble.

Catherine has studied with some of the big names in baroque dance (Wendy Hilton, Angene Feves, Roger Baird, Paige Whitely Baugess, Elaine Biagi Turner and Steven Adby). She has also studied the important field of historic gesture, a strong component of the dance.

Ballet dancing as we know it evolved from baroque dance but the early version was very different. Movement of dancers was restricted by heavy costumes and in the case of the ladies, corsets and voluminous dresses. There was little jumping and no throwing. The dancing was all about style, elegant movement and steps characteristic of the various dances. Those who attended the baroque style dancing in the Baroque Festival in May 2017, choreographed by Laurie Montemurro and those wonderful costumes by Kerri Davis will have some idea of what it is like.

The workshop will consist of

3, 2 to 3 hour sessions in the Denman Activity Centre:

Friday October 13 6-9pm.

This session is aimed at absolute beginners. Catherine will provide a brief historical background to the dancing and will describe how the steps of dances were recorded on paper. She will demonstrate a number of steps and put them to music with the group.

Saturday October 14 1.30-4.30 pm.

In this session, steps learned on Friday will be repeated and much more added. People unable to attend on Friday may sign-up for this session.

Sunday October 15 9.30 am-12.30 pm.

This session is aimed at those with some previous dance experience who wish to take it a step further and work in more detail on a dance. Registrants should have attended the previous sessions.

Tickets, $20 for each session, may be made from September 15 at Abraxas Books or directly. Denman Residents who are members of Arts Denman may apply for bursaries to offset some workshop costs. For further information see Juan Barker at Abraxas Books. There may be places available at the door.

This workshop is a unique opportunity to learn more about this fascinating art-form. We are hoping to bring some dancers from HPE to perform next spring, probably as part of our Baroque Festival.

Come, give it a try! Call me for more information (250-335-9047).

Apple Fest & Farm. Crawl
Submitted by Kate Janeway & Erika Bland for the Growers and Producers Alliance

Join us on Saturday October 7th for the return of this much loved, family friendly Thanksgiving Weekend event! The Growers and Producers Alliance is pleased to present

Apple Fest this year with a new twist: the Farm Crawl!

The goal of our Farm Crawl is to celebrate the season by highlighting both the strong farming traditions on the island and some of our present agricultural ventures, in all their various and clever permutations. The Farm Crawl will feature three unique island farms, offering guided tours and a Q&A session with the farmers to provide a more in-depth look at these special farms and their practices. The Crawl will also feature 3-5 additional farms that are well known to islanders, and will be open to self-guided visits. More details about participating farms will be released soon. The Crawl will run from 12:30-4:30pm on Saturday afternoon, and tickets ($5-10 on a sliding scale) can be purchased at the Farmer's Market that morning, with Crawl maps provided.

The Apple Fest will see the return of some classic events in a new location! Visit the Farmers Market from 9:30-12:30 to view our famous Apple Display, have your apple ID'd by resident apple detective, Agatha Crisp, bring your kids for face painting and other fun and games, and stop by the GPA booth to buy your Thanksgiving apple pie! Pedal power is encouraged; work up your apple-tite by biking to Apple Fest, and to any or all of the Crawl stops. The festival will also feature East Cider Orchard for orchard walks among their 70 varieties of heritage trees, and—new this year—juicing demonstrations from Denman Island's very own juice press. Rain or shine, bring your wellies and brollies, and see you there.
